

Audette Exel

Chief Executive Officer, ISIS (Asia Pacific) Pty Limited
Co-Founder, The ISIS Foundation

Executive Summary

Audette Exel is one of the founders of the ISIS Group and Chief Executive Officer of its Australian company, ISIS (Asia Pacific) Pty Limited. The ISIS Group is a specialised corporate finance and investment consultancy firm, which was established in 1998.

Ms. Exel is the Vice Chairman of the Board of Steamship Mutual Underwriting Association Trustee (Bermuda) Limited. Steamship Mutual is one of the world's largest Protection and Indemnity clubs for the shipping industry.

The ISIS Group was established to generate revenue for The ISIS Foundation, which was created by the founders at the same time. The ISIS Foundation funds and manages, in partnership with local community groups, six projects in Nepal and two in Uganda. All of its projects focus on the remote delivery of health and education services to local women and children. The ISIS Foundation now provides support to thousands of people living in extreme poverty. The ISIS Group has provided millions of dollars of support to The ISIS Foundation since inception.

Before establishing ISIS, Ms Exel was Managing Director of one of Bermuda's three Banks, Bermuda Commercial Bank. During her tenure, the Bank returned an average increase in profits of over 75% per annum, assets increased from US$170 million to US$450 million and assets under administration, custody and trust increased by over US$2 billion to $4.5 billion.

During her first year of management, the Bank was the best performing stock listed on the Bermuda Stock Exchange. She is one of the youngest women in the world to have run a publicly-traded bank.

During 1995 and 1996, Ms Exel was also Chairman of the Bermuda Stock Exchange. Ms Exel was on the Board of Bermuda's central financial services regulator from 1999 to 2005.

Prior to joining Bermuda Commercial Bank, Ms Exel practised as a lawyer specialising in international finance. She began her career with Allen, Allen and Hemsley in Sydney, Australia before joining the English firm of Linklaters & Paines, in their Hong Kong office. She is called to the Bars of New South Wales, Australia, England and Wales and Bermuda.

In 1995, Ms Exel was elected a "Global Leader for Tomorrow" by The World Economic Forum.
