Principal, ISIS Law

Executive Summary

ISIS law was formed in April 2008 by Marco Montarsolo and is affiliated with ISIS Limited. The main objective of ISIS Law is to provide niche legal services to high end structured finance deals and hedge funds predominantly for the Australasian Market.

Marco brings a wealth of knowledge to ISIS, having previously worked for two local Bermuda Law Firms, including Appleby Spurling Hunter in their Funds and Investment Services Team where he was involved in the creation and provision of legal advice for a variety of structures of mutual funds and segregated account companies.

Further responsibility included the management of the corporate department of Marshall Diel & Myers where he provided corporate legal advice to local and exempt companies and oversaw the corporate administration department with a portfolio of 400 companies. His corporate legal experience also includes a wide scope of corporate work such as continuations, IPO's, exempted partnerships, airplane leasing, structured finance, insurance captives and mergers and acquisitions.

Marco also spent time working for Lovells in London, U.K. in their commercial property department before being called to the Bermuda Bar in 2003.
